

Valued Customer,

Thank you for giving NAL Services, Inc. the opportunity to be your complete safety, and health connection. Our safety company continuously services the industry with compliance safety training and written programs, confined space entry/rescue safety personnel, hydrogen sulfide (H₂S) monitoring for on site detection and release, on-site safety consulting, safety equipment rental, sales and repairs, air monitoring and first responder services.

It is our goal from to provide the highest quality on site services, safety support, compliant training and experience to ensure protection of life and property.

Services include, but not limited to:

- A. On site drilling/well servicing support for all emergency situations associated with Hydrogen sulfide release.
- B. On site drilling/well servicing support for safety meeting/training, job safety analysis, procedure and development, and incident/accident investigation, etc.
- C. On site safety support for all types of confined space entry operations, which consists of providing air monitoring, harness, lifelines, and rescue support during operation.
- D. On site safety consultant to develop and implement all aspects of a safety management system.
 - a. From writing policies, conducting field observation, inspection, and audits: conducting job safety analysis.
 - b. Providing OSHA compliant training.
- E. Provide on site safety trailer for both drilling/well servicing activities to monitor for potential airborne Hydrogen Sulfide Gas, provide safety Specialist to act as on site person in charge in the event of release.
- F. Provide various rental equipment to support drilling/well servicing activities.
 - a. Hand held personal Hydrogen Sulfide monitors
 - b. Multi Gas monitors for confined space activity
 - c. Ventilation equipment for confined space activities
 - d. Generators for power on well sites
 - e. Harness, lifelines, and retrieval equipment to support confined space activity
- G. Training in the following:
 - a. Hydrogen Sulfide Safety with emphasis on Emergency Procedures,
 - b. Confined Space Awareness, Entry, and Basic Rescue,
 - c. CPR/First Aide
 - d. Fire Extinguisher Training with emphasis on application technique, approach and safety during fire extinguishments.

We are confident in our ability to be your complete safety source providing you with detailed safety solutions, state of the art advanced equipment, complimented with the detailed instructions and emphasis to service. We will always strive to meet the changing needs of our customers.

Sincerely,

David Bury
President